

Faculty of Health Informatics

The EPR and Clinical Teams: Where Are We Now?

Monday 19 June 2006
The Symposium Hall, Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh

Symposium Programme

09:00 - 09:15	Registration and refreshments
09:15 - 09:30	Opening address	Mr David Birnie Dean, Faculty of Health Informatics, RCS Edinburgh
	State of the Nations
09:30 - 10:15	Making Progress: the EPR in Scotland and England	Dr Kenneth Robertson Clinical Lead in IM&T, Scottish Executive Health Department
10:15 - 10:45	Refreshment break
	Clinical and Patient Engagement
10:45 - 11:15	Engaging Clinicians - Challenges and Champions	Mrs Heather Tierney-Moore Nurse Director, Lothian NHS Board
11:15 - 12:30	Patient Accessed Records - A Global Tool for the 21st Century	Richard Fitton, Salaried GP, Manor House Surgery
	Real Time Sharing Communications With Patients: A Real Experience	Sean Butler, SpR Care of the Elderly, Queen Alexandra Hospital
12:30 - 13:30	Lunch
	Digital Pictures
13:30 - 14:15	A PACS (Picture Archiving and Communication) Solution for Scotland	Julian Noble, Kodak Account Manager in Scotland and Charlie McCaffrey, Kodak Regional Business Manager for the UK
14:15 - 15:00	PACS in Practice	Hamish McRitchie Consultant Radiologist / Head of Clinical Service - Radiology
15:00 - 15:30	Refreshment break
	ePharmacy
15:30 - 16:30	Electronic prescribing and pharmacy in Scotland	Michele S Caldwell Director of Pharmacy, NHS Ayrshire and Arran
16:30 - 17:00	Discussion
17:00	Close	